A WORD ABOUT THIS SALE.

A simple glance at the list of Numismatic Authors mentioned below will give any person versed in coins, medals or paper money, some definite idea as to the extent and completeness of the numismatic library of the late William Sumner Appleton, the prominent Boston numismatist. Practically every noted name in the realm of numismatic literature may be found in these pages. In such an unusual offering, an unprecedented opportunity is given the lovers of coins, medals and kindred subjects, to enrich their libraries and to increase their facilities for more thorough numismatic study and research along their chosen lines of collecting. It is unnecessary to state that no man can ever become a numismatist who neglects a study of the best known works pertaining to coins and medals.

This sale includes well known and rare works by Leake, Vaillant, Morrelius, Donaldson, Madden, Sabatier, Echkel, Cohen, Berthelmy, Feuardent, Oisellus, Friedlander, LeNormant, Hager, Tychsen, Thomas, Marsden, Heiss, Schubert, Schive, Mieris Van Loon, Maillet, Sweitzer, Zepernick, DeSauley, Hoffman, Duby, Edwards, Laskey, Bizot, Oelrichs, Kohler, Appel, Chijs, Lelewel, Cappe, Schlickeysen, Chaudoir, Fonrobert, Radziwill, Florez, William Wood, Batty, Montagu, Hawkins, Ackerman, Boyne, Hazlitt, Humphreys, Ruding, Lindsay, Jewett, Head, Grueber, Hill, Wroth, Gardner, Simon, Snelling, Conder, Crosby, J.
